RE: Santiago Bourbois

CONTINUATION:

A short time later, BOURBOIS departed the apartment complex and agents proceeded to follow him to a residence in Mission, Texas. As BOURBOIS was exiting the vehicle, agents approached him and identified themselves as Border Patrol Agents. BOURBOIS was questioned about his possible involvement in human smuggling to which BOURBOIS freely admitted to harboring two undocumented aliens at his apartment. BOURBOIS gave verbal and written consent to search apartment #1, apartment #2, and provided keys.

Agents proceeded to the apartments and discovered two subjects in apartment #1. Jose ROBLERO-Velasquez and the additional subject were determined to be illegally present in the United States.

All subjects were placed under arrest and transported to the Centralized Processing Center to be processed accordingly.

PRINCIPAL STATEMENT:

Santiago BOURBOIS was read his Miranda Rights. He understood his rights and agreed to provide a sworn statement without the presence of an attorney.

BOURBOIS stated he was hired by a smuggler to harbor undocumented aliens. In turn he would get $500 (USD) to pay his own apartment rent. He indicated that he has been living in apartment #2 for about a month. BOURBOIS stated that about ten to twelve illegal aliens have been harbored in apartment #1 and #2. He further stated he instructed the illegal aliens where to sleep and told them they could eat whatever they wanted.

MATERIAL WITNESSES STATEMENT:

Jose ROBLERO-Velasquez was read his Miranda Rights. He understood his rights and provided a sworn statement without the presence of an attorney.

ROBLERO, a citizen of Guatemala, stated his father made the smuggling arrangements and was to pay a total of $4,000 (USD). After crossing the river, ROBLERO indicated that he was picked up and eventually transported to the apartment where he was later arrested. Once there, ROBLERO stated that an old man told him where to sleep and that there was food for him. ROBLERO stated the older man moved him to the apartment next door and instructed him not to go outside. ROBLERO identified BOURBOIS through a photo lineup as the old man who was at the apartment giving instructions.
